

CELEBRATING 25 YEARS!

Thanks to all our Skilled Staff and Loyal Clients. Since 1985.

The Smucker Company began small as a family-owned, residential drywall business built on word-of-mouth referrals. Over the years, a loyal customer base, an exceptional reputation and a gradual evolution into larger projects transformed us into a commercial wall and ceiling contracting business generating millions of dollars in South Central PA, the Philadelphia suburbs and also into Maryland and Delaware.

"We recognize that well-rounded employees make our company stronger, this has kept us afloat during the most challenging of times," says Merv Smucker, President and Chief Executive Officer. "Leadership and direction are important, but ultimate success hinges on the character and quality of the people out doing the job and honest, solid business partnerships with our customers."

For 25 years, honesty has proven time and time again to be the best policy. The Smucker team looks forward to facing the challenges of the next 25 years with a continuing commitment to Safety, Productivity and Quality!"

We look forward to the next 25 years of helping build a better world. One project at a time.

Nearly 100 strong, we go the extra mile to promote an open and honest company culture that builds loyalty and trust among every member of our staff. We offer employees a one-on-one apprenticeship program, ongoing training and life-skills development to help them succeed and find satisfaction every day. The investment has paid off with a growing work force and a safety record boasting almost five years without lost time - a phenomenal statistic in the industry.
